

Harmony in Howick

One day in the year 2010, Jake invited Dave over for a play at his house after school. Dave was new to New Zealand. He had just arrived from London and had no friends. Jake and Dave went to watch the Simpsons on television, then Jake said, "Awww man, it's the ads." Then the guy on the ad said, "Kids, there is a competition to win a new mystery toy car. There is only one in stock. Come to the mall at 2:30 today and you might win." Dave checked the calendar and said, "Tomorrow is toy car racing day at school and we have no cars." Jake had an idea. "Why don't we go for that car?" "Okay," said Dave. Later on, at the mall, the man on the ad shut down the main lights and then moved a bright white spotlight. He said, "You in the spotlight, come to the stage." So Jake did. He said, "Well done, you have won the BMW M86." Then Dave became jealous.

At school Dave never spoke to Jake. Jake sent a letter to Dave saying, "Dear Dave, I'm sorry for causing a bad friendship and I want to share my car with you. So let's meet at the ping pong table after lunch for a surprise." Dave received the letter before school. After lunch he saw Jake there and he said, "Will you forgive me?" "Yes I will." So they shook hands and became friends again.

By Joel Macdonald
Year 5
Howick Primary School.